

Nexus Password

Nexus Password can be used for environments with lower security demands.

You can define your own password policy and set requirements for password length, complexity, disallowed characters, password change and password history. The solution can integrate with Microsoft Active Directory and reuse the passwords from Active Directory. Then the password policies in Active Directory will apply when a user changes or resets a password.

Related information

- Authentication methods