

GDPR statements

On May 25, 2018, the EU's new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) goes into effect. GDPR applies to all organizations managing the personal information of EU citizens.

Here are some frequently asked questions regarding Nexus and GDPR:

Expand/Collapse All

Yes, Nexus has an appointed data protection officer, that is responsible for security, coordination and monitoring of safety procedures and processes and compliance. Contact us for more information.

Yes, Nexus is certified in Sweden according to ISO 27001: 2013 standard, issued by the certification organization RISE, Research Institutes of Sweden AB.

You are welcome to send your contact details and a description of your question to contact@nexusgroup.com and we will contact you.

- Information about GDPR from Nexus
- EU: General Data Protection Regulation

Related information

- GDPR statement for Nexus Card SDK
- GDPR statement for Nexus Certificate Manager
- GDPR statement for Nexus GO Cards
- GDPR statement for Nexus GO PDF Signing
- GDPR statement for Nexus Hybrid Access Gateway
- GDPR statement for Nexus PRIME
- GDPR for Nexus GO services - FAQ

Links

- EU: General Data Protection Regulation
- Information about GDPR from Nexus